

Paranormal Investigators Investigation and Confidentiality Agreement

I, _____ have the authority to grant permission to the presiding paranormal investigative organization to conduct an investigation at the location detailed below:

Name of Property: _____

Street Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip Code: _____

Permission is herein granted to the _____ to conduct an investigation of the property detailed above. Permission is also granted to conduct historical research of said property, including, but not limited to, the review of historical documents, deeds, newspaper articles, and other printed material, as well as interviews of previous owners/occupants, neighbors, and eyewitnesses. The investigation process has been fully explained to me. The presiding paranormal investigative organization releases the owner of the location from any liability for injuries to investigators or damage to equipment owned by investigators and he presiding paranormal investigative organization that may occur during the course of the investigation(s). The presiding paranormal investigative organization also assumes full responsibility for any damages to the property caused either by accident or intent by the presiding paranormal investigative organization, personnel or affiliates during the course of the investigation(s). This excludes damage caused by individuals not affiliated with the presiding paranormal investigative organization or due in part to the condition of the property.

Confidentiality Agreement: The presiding paranormal investigative organization assumes the responsibility for the privacy of information obtained during the investigation. No information concerning this property, the investigations, witnesses, individuals interviewed in the course of the investigation, or owners/occupants will be released without the owner's expressed written permission. Permission will be obtained via the Paranormal Investigators Confidentiality Form. Information obtained from interviews may be protected under a separate confidentiality agreement. Portions of information or identities may not be divulged to the property owner/responsible party by the request of an individual or entity interviewed during the course of the investigation. The agreement made herein can only be altered or changed by written agreement between the property owner/responsible party and the investigative team. This agreement is binding and applies to all past, present, and future members of group members conducting the investigation.

Additional information (conditions, caveats, adjustments, etc.):

Access to the property via this release is effective for one-year from today's date. The confidentiality agreement is effective for the lifetime of the property and all individuals specified herein (Team members, property owners/occupants, witnesses, and all individuals interviewed).

Property Owner/Responsible Party (please circle)

Signed: _____ Date: _____

Printed Name: _____

Investigation Team Leader

Signed: _____ Date: _____

Printed Name: _____